

Status of reporting to the international human rights treaty bodies

International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

Second periodic report of the Kingdom of Cambodia

This report has been OVERDUE since 31 July 2002.

In accordance with article 40, States parties are under a legal obligation to report regularly on measures taken to implement the provisions of the Covenant. Initial reports are due within one year of the date in which the Covenant entered into force in the country. Subsequent reports are submitted whenever requested by the Human Rights Committee.

The Human Rights Committee has requested States parties with reports overdue to submit their reports without delay.

The Kingdom of Cambodia submitted its initial report in 1999.
