

Present

Fighting back through the Courts:
CEDAW and the Challenge of Combating
Violence Against Women

Speaker: Dame Silvia Cartwright, Trial Chamber Judge, Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia

A 30-minute public lecture, with Q&A following (in English)

Date and Time: September 15, 2011, from 6-7PM

Venue: PUC Srey Dim Conference Hall (No. 184, Norodom Blvd)

HOSTED BY THE FACULTY OF LAW AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS AND PUC LEGAL CLINIC

Justice Dame Silvia Cartwright graduated with a Bachelor of Laws from Otago University in 1967. After several years in private practice, she embarked on a judicial career which culminated in her appointment as the first woman in New Zealand to the High Court. Internationally, Dame Silvia contributed as a member of the UN committee monitoring compliance with the UN Convention to Eliminate All Forms of Discrimination Against Women. She was made a Dame Commander of the Order of the British Empire in 1989 and Principal Companion of the New Zealand Order of Merit in 2001. She is currently serving as a Judge on the Trial Chamber at the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC! ALL WELCOME TO ATTEND.

About the International Justice and Human Rights Legacy Lecture Series. The International Justice and Human Rights Legacy Lecture Series is a series of lectures co-organized by the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights - Cambodia Country Office and the Pannasastra School of Law and Public Policy. The aim of the series is to draw upon the expertise of staff working at the ECCC to foster broader public discussion about contemporary international justice and human rights issues. The first lecture was given by International Co-Prosecutor Andrew Cayley on 30 June 2011 and the second by H.E. Chea Leang on 19 August. Highlights from the lectures will be made publicly available after the series is complete.